OCTOBER

FUN PALACES! (you knew that, right?)

SILVER SUNDAY

Silver Sunday provides an opportunity for local authorities, charities, community groups and private, voluntary and public organisations to promote what they already do to relieve social isolation and loneliness among older people. This year it's 6th October 2019, so if you are an older person or making a Fun Palace with older people, sign your Fun Palace up to Silver Sunday too. Find out more here.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black History Month takes place throughout October and is an opportunity to remember the past and look to the future, joining together to renew our commitment to racial equality. As it happens annually (in the UK) during October, it's a great opportunity to make a fuss about local history and learning in your Fun Palace. Black History Month.

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

and here's a couple of organisations doing great things year-round:

CONTACT THE ELDERLY

Contact the Elderly organises monthly Sunday afternoon tea parties for small groups of older people aged 75 and over, who live alone, offering a regular and vital friendship link every month. Since their first tea party in 1965, Contact the Elderly has supported more than 100,000 lonely older people. Have a look at their website to see if there is a group near you – perhaps they can be part of your Fun Palace this year.

WHAT NEXT?

What Next? is a national movement bringing people together to articulate, champion and strengthen the role of culture in our society. There are local chapters across the country, bringing together those working in or passionate about culture, to address issues of relevance to them. WN? Chapters are a great way to meet people that may be keen to get involved with your Fun Palace, to spread the word, and importantly, to place your Fun Palace in the context of political discussions about arts and culture in your area. You can find out more here.
