FUN PALACES! (you knew that, right?)

SILVER SUNDAY

Silver Sunday provides an opportunity for local authorities, charities, community groups and private, voluntary and public organisations to promote what they already do to relieve social isolation and loneliness among older people. BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black History Month takes place throughout October and is an opportunity to remember the past and look to the future, joining together to renew our commitment to racial equality. 2

... And here's a couple of organisations doing great things year-round:

RE-ENGAGE

Re-Engage brings older people together in social groups at a time in their lives when their social circles are diminishing. Last year, nearly 7,000 older guests were part of over 900 groups across the UK, supported by 12,000 volunteers. Have a look at their website to see if there is a group near you – perhaps they can be part of your Fun Palace this year.

WHAT NEXT?

What Next? is a UK-wide movement bringing people together to articulate, champion and strengthen the role of culture in our society. There are local chapters across the UK, bringing together those working in or passionate about culture, to address issues of relevance to them. WN? Chapters are a great way to meet people that may be keen to get involved with your Fun Palace, to spread the word, and importantly, to place your Fun Palace in the context of political discussions about arts and culture in your area. You can find out more here.
